Married In High Noon Rites at St. Lawrence

Altar of the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and stock, interspersed with white candles, for the high noon nuptial ceremony on Nov. 14, in which Miss Sandra Lee Helmick became the bride of Brian D. Linehan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith A. Helmick of Redondo. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Linehan, 844 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar

Inaugural Address Is Study Topic

Mrs. Blanche McCallum gave the program on public speaking, using the eloquently written inaugural address of the late President John F. Kennedy as an illustration, at the meeting of the Xi Zeta Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Millhouse in Hawthorne.

A report was given by Mrs. Helen O'Neil and Mrs. Bert White on the pre-Halloween party given for the teen-age children at Columbia school in Torrance on Friday evening Oct. 23. Serving as party hostesses were Mmes. Bert White, William Guthormsen, Richard Musto, Helen O'Neil, Helen Klamm, Raymond Millhouse and Blanche McCallum. Highlight of the evening was the appearance of Tommy Wilson and the "Night Riders", a teen-age band.

Coffee, cider and Halloween decorated cakes were served to conclude the evening.

wearing a floor-length gown of candlelight satin. Alencon lace, studded with pearls, enhanced the neckline, and bodice of the gown. The full skirt, which fell into a chapel train, was ornamented with the pearled Alencon. A pearl crown held the shoulder-length veil and she carried a cluster of white orchids and stephanotis.

The bridal attendants wore long royal blue satin gowns and carried bouquets of green spider chrysanthemums. They were Mrs. Wentzel C. Smith, her sister's matron of honor; Misses Vicki Megill and Jenny Jenkins, bridesmaids.

Wentzel Smith performed the duties of best man and ushers were Bradley Dorfman, and Steve Blackney.

The Rev. John F. O'Bryne officiated at the marriage. Miss Ann Gesch, at the organ, played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Rita Carroll, soloist.

A buffet luncheon was served at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo followed by a champagne reception.

The honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs and the new home is in Lomita.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School and her husband was graduated from North High School.
